HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

LEGAL REQUIREMENT: Health & Safety at Work Act 1974

Kensington Medical Supplies recognises and accepts its responsibilities as an employer for providing a safe and healthy workplace and working environment for all its employees. The company will take all appropriate steps within its power to meet this responsibility.

Kensington Medical Supplies is fully committed to:

- Giving a high degree of attention to Health and Safety matters in relation to both employees and other individuals including customers coming into contact with the business.
- Ensuring the business complies with all relevant legislation and best practices within manufacturing.
- Maintaining all the business sites in a safe and hygienic condition.
- Ensuring that all work equipment is maintained in a safe condition and is fit for purpose.
- The prevention of injury and ill health to all employees and non-employees.

Kensington Medical Supplies will ensure that a Health & Safety management system is implemented to:

- Effect this policy through the systems and procedures outlined in the company Health and Safety System.
- Ensure that standards of safety are constantly reviewed and improved through identification of significant hazards, carrying out risk assessments of activities and implementation of safe systems of work as necessary.
- Periodically review the actions taken, performance against these commitments and the policy itself.

All staff and visitors have a duty to take care of their own and others safety by complying with laid down company safety procedures.
